A Chinese Century? Infrastructure, Entrepreneurship and Education in the 21st Century

Britain and Germany set global standards in the 19th century. The 20th century has been called “The American Century.” What, then, are the prospects for Chinese leadership in the 21st Century? This lecture, based on a series of Harvard Business School cases, will explore China’s capacity to lead the world in higher education, entrepreneurship, infrastructure and power (hard and soft) in this century. As Europe and America turn inward, can China lead?
